Continuation of 3. NOTE: The amendment of claim 1 is NOT entered because no support was found in the spec. for "a computer network".

Continuation of 7. Only the cancellation of claims 43 and 48-50 has been entered.

Continuation of 11. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: Claims 1, 14 15 and 20 remain rejected for the reasons given in the Office action. For example, in response to the rejection of the claims under 35 USC 112, second para., that terms are indefinite because they are based on "ownership", the applicant argues,

"Applicant points out that the distinction between merchant and financial card institution is not taught by the specification to be based on ownership, but is taught to be based on a financial card institution receiving computer monitored financial card applications distributed/promoted by product or service providing merchants in exchange for providing advertisements to the merchants. Thus, these terms are not distinguished by ownership but by function and are therefore definite under 35 USC 112, second paragraph." (pp. 8-9)

The examiner does not agree that "a financial card institution" and a "merchant" are "functionally different". Indeed, "financial card institutions are merchants (of financial card products).

REQUEST FOR INTERVIEW after-final is DENIED. Applicant has not made a compelling case in writing so there is no basis to believe an interview would advance prosecution.
